

Locals.

J. A. McKinney is building a house and doing other necessary improvements on his farm, one and one half miles north west of Roy.

Jacob Floershiem is building an addition to his residence and sowing fifty acres of land on his farm east of the townsite.

George Pendergrath is erecting a windmill on his farm two miles south of town. He has a well of good water at 145 feet.

Gregorio Rigoni struck an abundant supply of water in a dug well at a depth of fifty six feet on his farm in Chicosa valley.

The contract will be let this week for the finishing of the Catholic church.

The Roy baseball team lined up and had their pictures taken in their new suits.

Last Monday afternoon while Missess Valley Duncan and Myrtle Tindall were out horse back riding, the saddle turned with Miss Duncan, throwing her on her left shoulder and spraining her arm. It is thought to be nothing serious, yet she is suffering great pain.

W. A. De Force arrived here last week from Fort Worth, Tex., and has purchased three building lots on the east side and is building a house. Mr. De Force will make Roy his future home.

Miss Jessie Crouse, who has been ill for the last week is convalescent. She is taking a much needed rest at her father's home north of town.

William A. Brumage moved to his farm 1 mile north of town Saturday.

Up-to-date job work done at this office. Give us a trial.

Wm. C. Roy made a business trip to Tucumcari last Saturday.

John Tasharski is making preparations to build a stone house on the west side.

E. V. Neil, who lives one mile west of town left Tuesday for his home in Hillsdale, Mich. He was called there on account of the serious illness of his mother.

George Shoopman left last Saturday for Cherryvale, Kans., where he will take treatment for a cancer. Mr. Shoopman has been in poor health for some time, but it is hoped he will rapidly gain his health and return.

Tucumcari has commenced the work on a 200,000 gallon reservoir which is to supply the city with water. It will be completed about June 15th.

FOR SALE—A bicycle in good condition. Apply at this office.

Tonight the Woodman of the World hold their regular meeting at the Commercial hall.

If you need any kind of stationery or job work of any kind call on the Spanish-American.

A hollow-wire light system has recently been installed in J. W. Tyler's store. It adds very much to the appearance of the west side.

A very enjoyable party was given last Saturday night by the ladies of the Primrose Progressive Circle in the form of an ice cream social and dance which was a success socially as well as financially. The ladies clearing $17.45. All those who attended expressed themselves as spending a very pleasant evening.

Personals.

George M. McGuire, of Abbot, transacted land business in Roy Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs L. E. Wells, of Boliver, Mo. arrived here the first of the week, to make her future home, on the homestead entered by her husband, six miles north of town.

Dr. Authur A. Mahle has been here the past week making fence and other needed improvements on his 320 acre farm one mile north-west of town. he left Thursday for his home at Lemont, Ill. He expects to return this fall and sow about 200 acres of wheat.

Oliver Osborne, of Solano, transacted business here yesterday.

Miss Edith Thornburg arrived here Thursday from Warrensburg, Mo., where she has been attending the State Normal. She will visit here with home folks about a month and then go to Las Vegas and enter school.

W. B. Jerrill, of Tucumcari transacted business here Thursday and Friday.

J. B. Kirby came in Thursday from Dalhart, Texas, and will move to his farm in Union Valley.

Rev. J. S. Russell, of Dodge City, Kansas, arrived here Wednesday. He expects to make an extensive visit.

When you have some one visiting you, or have been away somewhere drop in and tell us. We appreciate any news of interest.

Miss Hilda Floershiem will leave for Montoya Saturday, to be the guest of her brother, Melville and Mrs. Calish.

S. F. Osborne, of Solano, passed through Roy yesterday on his to Dawson going overland. He was accompanied by J. B. Carson.

Kansas Valley Notes.

Mrs. D. Ella Romine and daughter entertained the following ladies informally to dinner last Saturday: Mesdames Ogden, Lucas and Miss Inez Fogleman, of Cherryvale, Kansas.

L. A. Brown is digging a cellar on his farm.

Warren Kenney is setting up a windmill for George Pendergrath near Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas, Mrs. T. M. Ogden and Miss Inez Fogleman were the guests of Mrs. A. A. Berentz at Mesteno Sunday.

Roy Wood is having 200 acres of land broken by the Grunig and Wood steam plow.

John Fogleman has accepted a position with John W. Tyler, at Roy.

John Linton was very unfortunate last week, one of his fine work horses died. Shelby Gross also has a sick horse.

Mrs. Lillie Wood and Miss Grace Romine made a business trip to Roy Tuesday.

A number of Miss Bessie Wood's lady friends surprised her last Saturday afternoon, conversation was the diversion of the afternoon. Miss Bessie served dainty refreshments to her guests, those present were; Mesdames Kenney, Wood, Lucas, Brown, Ogden, Romine and Misses Fogleman, Kenuey and Romine.

George Lucas purchased a buggy of F. H. Foster this week.

T. M. Ogden is seedling land for J. Floershiem, at Roy this week.

MESTENO NOTES.

Mr. Ben Hobson has an abundance of good water at 42 feet.

The dry weather has about stopped farming in the valley.

Deaton Bros. are hauling logs from the canyons this week to build two houses on their claims.

Mr. Martin, manager of the Mills Ranch and Resort Co., of Red River canyon, was at Mesteno on business Tuesday.

Mr. W. L. Sutton has rented a black smith shop in Roy and is doing a good business. he is splendid workman.

We are glad to hear of a townsite being surveyed at our station as it will give parties who want to go in business a chance to get lots.

Miss Maggie Ward's new store building is well under way of completion. Miss Ward is now east buying goods, she expects to begin business soon.

M. W. Mills was in the valley Sunday on business, he is going to survey out a townsite this week. Mr. W. H. Willecox will do the surveying.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanduyne were visiting with Mr. W. L. Sutton and family Sunday. Mr. Sutton works in Roy but spends Sundays at home with his family.

THE DARK SIDE.

A Dutchman, addressing his dog, said: "You was a only a dog, but I vish I vas you; when you go mit your bed in, you shust turn around three times and lay down; ven I go mit bed in, I have to lock de blace yet, and wind up the clock and put the cat out, and ondress myself yet and my baby vakes up and cries and cries and I haft to valk him mid de house round yet; den maybe I get myself to bed it is time to get up again. Ven you get up, you shust stretch yourself scratch your neck a leetle and you vas up. I haf to light de fire put on de kiddie, scrap some mit my wife already, and get myself some breakfast yet.

You play around all day and haf plenty of fun I haf to work all day and have plenty druble.

Ven you die you vas dead; ven I die maybe I haf to go to hell yet.

Thero Bath Tubs.

Dr. Bryant has just installed one of Dr. Corbin's Thero bath tub. The only strictly Theropentic bath tub in the world today. With this tub combined with his Osteopathic treatment, Dr. Bryant is now prepared to to diagnose and treat all curable chronic diseases, such as rheumatism, stomach, liver and kidney trouble, bowel, heart and lung complaints, head and throat trouble, and all forms of curable female disease, and greatly relieve many chronic conditions not curable. If you are suffering from any form of chronic disease that has failed to respond to other remedies call and see Dr. Bryant and take a bath and treatment and if you feel you have not had your money's worth keep it and go your way with my best wishes. Dr. Bryant is located 1-4 s. e. of Roy.

STRAYED or STOLEN—Two mules branded R on left hip both mares, one dark brown and the other light brown, star in forehead, age 5 and 6, weight about 630 pounds, holters on when left I will pay any one well for their troubles that will take them up and notify me at Roy, N. M.

J. C. Smith.

Solano Notes.

C. J. Blanchard returned Monday from a business trip to Tucumcari. Mr. Blanchard is the genial manager of the lumber yard here and will be retained under the new management.

Mrs. Richwalt returned Tuesday from an extended trip in the east.

F. C. Newing of the Tucumcari passed through on his way to Cimmaron Tuesday.

Victor Saulpangh left early in the week for Oklahoma.

The funeral of Mr. Gruin, who died Tuesday evening took place Wednesday afternoon from the family residence seven miles southwest of Solano, Rev. McBride conducting services at the cemetery.

The deceased leaves an aged wife and seven sons and daughters.

Dad Morris, and D. M. Talbot made a business trip to Tucumcari Sat.

J. D. King, who lost a team of horses some time ago, recovered them last week. They were taken up by Ed Brown 20 miles east of Springer.

Mrs. Dunning, who lives 1-2 mile south of Solano is the proud possessor of a good well finished this week.

She obtained plenty of water at 26 feet.

J. Nicolay is reported better this Dr. McKinney met with a painful accident Tuesday, his team became frightened, knocked him down and ran over him bruising him badly about the face and chest.

The Ball game Sunday was an interesting contest and though our boys lost the game we are proud of their showing, being the first game of the season.

The city windmill and pump was erected this week and we hope to have a plentiful supply of water.

Advertised Letters.

May 30, 1908.

Miss Lillie Allis, Mrs Encarnacion de Salazar, Mr. Luie Bartholme, Miguel B. a, Mrs. E. O. Thompson, Chas P. Besman, James Howe, A. W. Warren, Maria Clara Cordova, Frank Cooper, William F. Coleman, D. C. Bdey, Miss Mattie Graham, Edgar Young, Fugenio Flores, (2) Sr. Isabelita Jasmillo de Maes, care of Jose de Lae rus Martinez, Patricio Trujillo, Nora Urguehart, Sr. Don Antonio Olegin, Johnie Burns, Mrs. Tim Powell, and Sr. Enrique P. Hernandez.

All above letters remaining uncalled for June 1st, will be sent to the dead letter office.

Adell Bushkevitz.

P. M.

The Hotel Branch

The following registered at the Branch Hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cormcan, Cornell, Okla.

G. W. Reiley, Oskasha, Okla.
W. A. Warren, St Louis, Mo.
G. L. Murray, Denver, Colo.
F. M. Lónard, Denver, Colo.

Notice of Desertion.

Notice is hereby given that I the undersigned will not hereafter be responsible for any accounts contracted by my wife Petra Martinez, as she has absolutely refused to receive attention and support offered her by me. That she intends to totally abandon my bed, allowing outsiders to influence her against me.

Juan de Jesus Fernandez.

Dated this the 1st, day of May A. T. 1908.